

THOMAS FILLEBROWN, JR.

[To accompany bill H. R. No. 44.]

FEBRUARY 29, 1840.

Mr. GIDDINGS, from the Committee of Claims, made the following

REPORT:

The Committee of Claims, to whom was referred the petition of Thomas Fillebrown, jr., report :

That this claim was presented to the Committee of Claims in the House of Representatives at the 3d session of the 25th Congress, and a favorable report was made thereon, (vide Report No. 2, of the session aforesaid ;) which report the committee adopt, and herewith report a bill.

Blair & Rives, printers.

THOMAS FULLERBROW JR.
(To accompany H. R. No. 22)

January 20, 1840

The following are the opinions made by the Committee of Claims:

REPORT.

Claims to which was referred the petition of Thomas Fullerbrown, Jr., report:

was presented to the Committee of Claims in the House of Representatives at the 34th session of the 25th Congress, and a favorable report (vide Report No. 22 of the session aforesaid) which was adopted, and herewith report a bill.

1840